APPEAL RIGHTS

By signing the cover sheet required for the application, you understand that if the application is approved, you must post the orange notice on the property and allow the 15-day appeal period before work begins. You further understand that Vermont law allows 30 days to find this application complete.

Any interested person may appeal a zoning or flood hazard permit decision by filing a written Notice of Appeal with the Permit Administrator within fifteen (15) days of the date of the decision. The notice of appeal must be accompanied by a filing fee of $175.00, and shall be heard by the DRB.

Within thirty (30) days following the date of decision rendered by the DRB, notice of the appeal shall be filed by certified mail with the appropriate fees to the Environmental Court, and mail a copy to the Permit Administrator.

This is an application for a local permit only. Other Permits may be NECESSARY. Please contact the Vermont Permit Specialist at (802) 505-5367 for any further permitting requirements.
