Press Release

SUMMARY OF INCIDENT: On January 31, 2026, at approximately 2140 hours the Barre City Police Department received a call from a local Airbnb proprietor advising that a large amount of suspected drugs was located upon cleaning a room from a renter that had cancelled their reservation and left after arrival. Officers arrived on scene and secured and field tested the items. The substances were determined to be 57.1 grams of cocaine, 46.09 grams of crack cocaine, and 13.44 grams of fentanyl.

At approximately 2340 hours, the proprietor notified the police department that the renter had returned to reclaim property that had been left behind. Officers arrived back at the location and took the person into custody for the alleged possession. She was identified as 30-year-old Natasha Gonzalez of Hartford, CT. An additional 11.6 grams of cocaine, 11.1 grams of fentanyl, and $1160 was located in Gonzalez's possessions. Gonzalez was lodged at the Chittenden Correctional Facility in lieu of $100,000 bail. She is due to appear in Washington Superior Court at 1230 hours on February 2, 2026, to answer the alleged charges of possession of cocaine, cocaine sales and fentanyl trafficking. The incident remains under investigation.
