Old Business: The Board discussed the pros and cons of the cemetery being open in the winter. There are a lot of factors to consider such as the monument industry, personnel, plowing, access, etc.

New Business: Jeff indicated that at the Heritage Festival next year provisions will be made so that no one can access the statue area in the park. People made their way on the stairs, etc. with food and there were grease stains, etc. on the stone. Jeff is having the monument cleaned.
